THE WORD THIS WEEK

At this time of year a few days make all the difference. Christmas, for everyone except the most dedicated, is long over, which makes it difficult to feel excited about the 'Christmas' part of today. Yet there is something attractive in this stopgap Mass. It is a chance for everyone to hear the prologue from Saint John, indeed the only chance for those who don't go to the Mass of Christmas morning. But this passage is quite rich fare if you are not used to it. This could be one reason why both the First and Second Readings emphasise the role of Wisdom; this is usually taken, especially in the Old Testament, as a personification of God, but in Paul refers to a human quality. The second half of the Second Reading is a prayer for all of us: may we have a spirit of wisdom and perception of what is revealed. This could be described as a new year's resolution. It is appropriate that the annual passing of the New Year milestone should be accompanied by the most basic affirmation of all: In the beginning was the word; and the word was God; and the word was made flesh, and dwelt among us.

HOLYDAY OF OBLIGATION

This Tuesday 6th January is a Holyday of Obligation- The Epiphany of the Lord- please see the front page for details of Masses including the Vigil on Monday 5th January

EPIPHANY BLESSING OF HOMES

It is traditional for parish priests to bless chalk on the Feast of the Epiphany for parish families, so that they may mark the names of the three Magi over their doors, in blessing the home as a witness of their faith and protection against evil. With chalk, you write an inscription on the inside lintel above the front door. The series of numbers, letters, and crosses changes only slightly from year to year. For example, at the start of the year 2026, the line read as follows: 20+C+M+B+26. The four digits designating the New Year appear at the beginning and end of the line. Because Epiphany comes so near the beginning of the New Year, the numbers represent an annual renewal of God's blessing. The letters have two meanings. They are the initials of the traditional names of the Magi: Caspar, Melchior, and Balthasar. They also abbreviate the Latin words Christus mansionem benedicat, "May Christ bless the house." The letters recall the day on which the inscription is made, as well as the purpose of blessing. The crosses represent Christ, whom we invoke, and the saintliness of the Magi. The inscription is made above the front door, so that all who enter and depart this year may enjoy God's blessing. The month of January still bears the name of the Roman god Janus, the doorkeeper of heaven and patron of the beginning and end of things. This blessing adds a Christian dimension to the traditional observance of the first month. The inscription is made of chalk, a product of clay, which recalls the human nature taken by God's eternal Word in this holy season. If you want to bless your home this Epiphany, there are copies of a prayer of blessing available, along with blessed chalk, in all churches.
